Seller's description

Shrock Brothers Coalsport PA 1992 mfg. Collectible 1/55 scale Studebaker M5 green pickup truck. I bought this new from SASCO in 1993. It has been removed from the original box and on display in our family room under glass since then. I would describe it in MIB condition. I will ship promptly USPS in the original box with original packing foam wrapped around it.

On Nov-30-11 at 17:02:09 PST, seller added the following information:

Several viewers have contacted me about the scale of these Shrock vehicle I have up for bid. I can not make any valid claims about the scale as the box doesn't say. One viewer advised it to be 1/55 and another 1/72 based. Based on when I bought it, on Stude viewer suggested it was 1/55. I can only say it is 3 1/2" long, 1 1/4" wide and 1 1/4 tall.

On Dec-01-11 at 18:11:29 PST, seller added the following information:

An email from David at Shrock Brothers: "We have been watching your ebay listing of our models. These models are all 1/55 scale Juniors. We noticed on ebay that people have questioned the scale of the models. All of these body styles were offered in 1/72 scale and 1/55 scale. They were offered in 1/43 scale with the exception of the M5 pickup. It is easy to confuse the scale of our models when looking at a photograph." David
